

Select Choir Info for Upcoming Concerts

Sunday, December 8th students should be at the First Congregational Church of Madison (on the Madison green) at 3:30 ready to perform. We are second on the program. Please be sure to arrange for transportation home for your child once the event is over.

The choir members chose the following outfits for the concert:

Decca girls choir is wearing red or black dresses. Red dresses need black tights to go along with the outfit, and both need black shoes. The girls know who is wearing which dress at the Sunday event. All girls should wear their hair away from their faces.

Swing 14 guys are wearing a black dress shirt and black dress pants with black shoes. I have blue bow ties for them. Swing girls are wearing blue dresses with black tights and black shoes. All girls should wear their hair away from their faces.

Thursday, December 12th students should arrive at the HKHS auditorium at 4:30 for a full rehearsal before their concert which begins at 6:00pm. Students are wearing the same outfits as above although Decca girls are switching their dresses which has been worked out among them. After their 45 minute concert there is a free preview of "A Christmas Carol" which you are invited to stay for.

Tuesday, December 17th, we are hosting a concert for elementary school students starting at 10am. Students will put their belongings in the chorus room and report to the risers at 9:50. This one-long concert will feature selections from the bands and choirs of HKHS. Students will wear all black for this event.
